 1. Had trouble understanding through microphone so texted. Requested that board members relieve students who are volunteering at the CSJ booth so the students can enjoy the conference. Will be emailing the board a grid of time slots needed for volunteering. Ipods and book donations from Sage. Our budget is looking good at $35,200; an improvement of about 2,000. Carlos is hopeful that we sell merchandise to increase funds. Carlos recommended that we consider the royalties as the funding student registration scholarships.

- e. Report by the CSJ Governing Council Representative
 - 1. Review email sent to board members: concern with ethnic minority at large position through GC... why don't we have someone in that position and what's being done about it? Wants feedback from the board regarding the history of the position in GC. Turned over to Michael Hutchins to review the history of the position. Hugh reminded board members that the minutes are available publicly on the website and encouraged board members to review them.
- f. Report by the CSJ co-editors of The Activist- newsletter dates and plans
 - 1. Rhonda: Newsletter is completed...asked regarding the DSM-V additions in this newsletter or next. Editors terms will be up in July 2011 and making recommendations for a new editor(s).

g. Report by the CSJ Retired Persons Representative: Not present.

h. Report by the CSJ Community Representative: Not present.

i. Report by the CSJ Student representative

Rebekah shared her enthusiasm regarding students submitting to the student column...it is the first one that is ready to go.

j. Report by the CSJ President-elect

Vong: Dip regarding membership. The membership committee has been focusing on the university group, getting student divisions of CSJ organized at various universities and having students meet at New Orleans. Another way to increase membership may be through continuing to send letters to members who have a membership lapse to help sustain our numbers.

Michael recommended that Nicole Adamson is having a workshop for students and connecting with her to go to the SJ Leadership Development Academy.

Vong: Received an email from CACREP and the 2016 Standards Revision Committee... getting social justice minded folks to apply and serve on the committee to encourage integration of social just concepts into counseling programs. Judy made a request to put it on the CSJ and AMCD listserv to get more folks to apply.

3. Committee Reports and Interest Groups
4. New Business
 1. CSJ Research Participation (email board for study)
 2. CACREP 2016 Revisions committee
 3. CSJ Leadership Grid
 4. Adam's State College Student/Faculty Request
 5. DSM-V: Julie Ancis...history of CSJ position statement..due to be published May 2013. Contacted Paula Caplan, a social activist in Psychology, to write and address the biases in current psychiatric diagnoses. Association for women in Psychology website many readings regarding the positions. Requested that board members review statement to make sure it is accurate...the DSM is lacking in empirical validity.A motion to formally endorse the DSM-V position statement from CSJ board members voted that CSJ pass the DSM-V position statement. A recommendation was made to get it out to the media and the general public.
www.awpsych.org.link is biased in diagnosis.

Michael Hutchins was invited to process observation and that timeline should pay attention...feedback was given

Possible future meeting date: We will meet in New Orleans
